

Every day 5,760 more children become orphans

There are 150 million orphans worldwide

In Arizona, 2,500 children are in shelters waiting for foster care.

Learn how to help a child at the

"Hope for the Children" Event

A Concert to Benefit Orphans and Children in Crisis

Featuring American Idol's

Brooke White

Find out about the immediate needs of thousands of Arizona children who are waiting for foster care placement or adoption.

Learn about the plight of orphans in developing countries and hear inspiring stories from orphans who have been adopted.

Saturday, May 29 at 7:00 pm
Gilbert High School Auditorium
(1011 E. Elliot Rd., Gilbert, AZ, 85234)

Enjoy world-class entertainment, including talented youth competing for cash awards and the title of "Ambassador of Hope for the Children."

See how individuals, families, businesses and faith groups can "Do Unto Others" by participating in "Seven Days of Nothing for Something Greater."

If you'd like, bring items (shampoo, toothpaste, books, pens, crayons, etc.) for "Just for Me" bags for AZ foster children. See a list of needed items, at www.familiesfororphans.org.

Tickets ($10) can be purchased online at www.familiesfororphans.org, at the Gilbert, Mesa and Chandler Desert Book Stores or at the door.

For general information or to sponsor the event, contact lacinda.lewis@yahoo.com or 480-926-8877.

To learn more about the vocal competition for ages 12-25, contact kirstenmillsap@hotmail.com or (602-689-3383) or go to www.familiesfororphans.org.

Sponsored by Circle of Support/Acenda and the Families for Orphans project of Family Watch International.